DEDICATION

Thank you, Mr. Mickus.
We,
The 1975 Yearbook Staff, wish to dedicate this year's work to

GEORGE W. MICKUS

our inestimable Adviser.

Two years ago, when you undertook the job as the sole adviser for the Yearbook, you had quite a job on your hands. Where others might have given up, you persevered with an incredible sense of devotion. Strength and determination can be gained from your willingness to help and serve a cause, Mr. Mickus. You are always there when something needs to be done — you inspire all of us to strive harder in our future endeavours.

This past year has involved a lot of annoyances, frustration, and many times when we didn't believe our patience would hold; you relieved us all with your sense of humor and understanding. We had no reservations at all when we thought of the recipient of our Dedication.

WHAT'S BUT

RECOGNITION

The work of two very special people at Weston High School should not go unnoticed. Helping to see that the Guidance Office runs smoothly, maintaining personal records, typing transcripts and recommendations — these often thankless tasks are important to all of us. Ruth Lascoutx and Marie MacRae, we thank you.

Because of your cheerful and harmonious attitude, few of us realize the difficult and time-consuming jobs you do. We, The Senior Class, greatly appreciate your efforts on our behalf. We know that without those efforts, our four years would not be as worthwhile as they are.

The Wayfarer

The Wayfarer,
Perceiving the pathway to truth,
Was struck with astonishment,
It was thickly grown with weeds.
"Ha," he said,
"I see that no one has passed here
in a long time."
Later he saw that each weed
Was a singular knife.
"Well," he mumbled at last,
"Doubtless there are other roads."

Be yourself. Especially, do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is perennial as the grass.

Beyond a wholesome discipline be gentle with yourself, for you are a child of the universe, no greater than the trees and stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, the universe is unfolding as it should.

A SPECIAL RECOGNITION

A broad smile that has always invited us to relax. Sparkling green eyes that for four years have danced with their unquenchable enthusiasm, even when ours have grown weary. There is a special kind of warmth that pours from your face, Mrs. Wohlers. Whether teaching, meeting with the class, chaperoning dances, or cashiering for the concession stand, you've never lost your willingness to help. You have indeed been our adviser, but for more than just class activities. In times of mass confusion, you've always managed to find time for a gentle word, an important piece of information, a bit of hopeful encouragement. You demonstrated to us an unwavering faith in people. Although many high school memories will inevitably slip away, your warmth will not easily be forgotten.

You've believed in us, and in the strength of your belief, we have learned to be ourselves. Thank you, Mrs. Wohlers.

Your brisk stride has brought your dynamic ideas and practicality to our class, Mr. McCowan. At the very initiation of each class activity, your frank honesty has provided direction and perspective to our plans. Thanks to your straightforward advice, our projects have been without grave complications or difficulties. In the confusing atmosphere of concession stands, movie nights, and prom set-ups, you've managed to establisha comfortable sense of order.

Your energetic attitude portrays the secret to organization. Even in occasional baffling situations, you have never failed to produce a quick joke or an amusing anecdote. You have taught us to face each task with a smile and a realistic outlook. Your determination has been an example to us all, Mr. McCowan.

Serving your Country has its benefits.

When you give a few years to your Country, you get a lot in return.

If you qualify, you get training in the job you choose.

You get to work in Europe, Korea, Panama, Hawaii, Alaska, or almost anywhere in the continental U.S.

You get in-service educational opportunities, as well as the G.I. Bill when your enlistment's over.

You get free medical and dental care, meals, housing, and 30 days paid vacation a year.

And most importantly, you get a chance to serve yourself as you serve your Country.
